As this editorial comes in the first issue of the last year of a millennium, it may be the time to examine our position in a global context. Our efforts to include
Last year the Nenets, together with many thousands of reindeer, had to wait until late December. "Our reindeer were hungry. There wasn't enough food," Jakov Japtik, a Nenets reindeer herder, said. "The snow is melting sooner, quicker and faster than before."

Guests reside and participate in the program at a destination spa instead of just visiting it for a treatment or pure vacation. Typically over a seven-day stay, such facilities provide a program that includes spa services, physical fitness activities, wellness education, healthy cuisine and special interest programming.

The Times: The Times, daily newspaper published in London, one of Britain's oldest and most influential newspapers. It is generally accounted, with The Guardian and The Daily Telegraph, one of Britain's 'big three' and has long been recognized as one of the world's greatest newspapers. The British government first learned of Russian peace proposals in The Times. Late in the 19th century, overspending and the inadvertent publication of a forgery against the Irish hero Charles Stewart Parnell brought The Times's finances, reputation, and circulation to a serious low. As part of a recovery effort, The Times entered into an agreement with the publishers of Encyclopædia Britannica for advertising and selling the 9th and 10th editions. When people travel, stay in a hotel, eat out, or go to the movies, they rarely think that they are experiencing many-sided, vast and very diverse hospitality industry.
